Sacrament of Baptism:

Our Parish offers a special Pre-Baptism preparation program for parents who desire to share their faith with their children. Parents-to-be must attend this class prior to the birth of their child. Baptisms are usually scheduled two times each month. Call the Rectory to register for classes. Godparents must be Confirmed and practicing Catholics. Non-parishioners are required to have a Letter of Recommendation to serve as a sponsor.

Sacrament of Marriage:

To be married in the Basilica, you must be an active parishioner for at least 9 months prior to setting a date. Engaged couples should contact the pastor before making other wedding arrangements. Couples are required to attend a Pre-Cana Conference, or equivalent pre-marriage preparation program.

Letters of Recommendation:

Recommendations to act as sponsors for Baptism or Confirmation can be issued only to registered members of Our Lady of Victory Parish who have received the Sacrament of Confirmation, attend Mass and receive Holy Communion regularly, have their children attending a Catholic school or Religious Education class. If married, the marriage must be in conformity with the regulations of the Catholic Church.

Devotions:

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament begins immediately after the 12:10 p.m. Mass in the Basilica on Fridays and concludes with Benediction at 5:00 p.m.

First Friday:

On the eve of the First Friday of each month there are confessions from 3:00 to 4:00 p.m. Mass is celebrated at 7:30 p.m. on First Friday.

Care of the Sick:

Please notify the rectory office for a visit to any family member who is sick, in the hospital or confined to home. Regular home Communion visits are usually on the First Friday of the month by a priest, deacon, or minister of the Eucharist.

Tours:

To schedule a tour of Our Lady of Victory Basilica, please contact Dianne Bosinski, Tours & Basilica Programs by email at dbosinski@ourladyofvictory.org or by phone at (716) 828-9424.

Pray for the canonization of our founder, Venerable Nelson Baker

The day has come. This Sunday, November 13, at the Noon Mass, we will close the Holy Door in the Basilica. We were privileged to be one of the churches throughout the world to have the Holy Door and to celebrate the Jubilee Year of Mercy which Pope Francis opened last December. Annually, we have about 30,000 pilgrims visit the Basilica. This year, we exceeded that number – with people who came from all over the world to enter our Holy Door and pray for the special graces that went along with that visit. (We printed over 40,000 prayer cards that had the explanation of the Holy Year indulgence, and they are almost all gone). Parish groups, families, and individuals came to pray at the Holy Door. Sunday's simple (in keeping with the spirit of Pope Francis) closing ceremony will bring all of this to a conclusion. I am grateful, as we all should be, that we could be an instrument of God's great mercy to all of us and to all who came here during this Jubilee Year of Mercy.

On Monday, November 14, the Parish Council will meet at 7:00 p.m. and the Liturgy Committee will meet at 8:00 p.m. Both meetings will be held in the OLV Elementary School Teacher Resource Room.

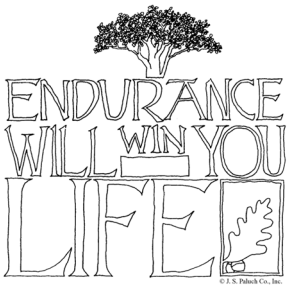
As we draw near to Thanksgiving, our parish St. Vincent de Paul Society gears up to help many of the needy families in Lackawanna with food for the holiday. You can help in this very worthwhile project. On Friday, November 18, at 10:00 a.m., they will begin the task of packing the food baskets which will be delivered the next day. If you are able to help with this work, just show up at the rectory garage. The members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society will be there to oversee the project. On Saturday, November 19, volunteers are needed for about two hours, at starting times spaced out between 10:00 a.m. and noon, to deliver these food baskets to the homes of those who have requested food. Again, if you are able to assist with this project, come to the rectory garage and the St. Vincent de Paul members will show you what to do. They are very grateful for your help. This is a great way to enter into the real spirit of Thanksgiving – by helping those less fortunate to have a meaningful Thanksgiving meal.

One more reminder: Our annual Thanksgiving Day Family Mass will be held on Thanksgiving Day at 10:00 a.m. Come to celebrate the holiday by giving thanks to God for all your blessings – and bring a gift of non-perishable canned goods for our St. Vincente de Paul Society to use for the needy in the days before Christmas.

Next weekend, we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King, the last weekend of this church year. Sunday, November 27, is the first Sunday of Advent, the beginning of a whole new church year. (Where did the last year go?).

May Jesus bless you and Our Lady of Victory watch over you.

Father Paul



Summary of the Readings
Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

An old expression holds that the sun-warmed stone heals. Perhaps. But Malachi explains that only dark, sunless days are in store for those who do not find a place for God in their lives. Conversely, he tells us that the warmth and light of God's healing justice await those who fear the Lord. That's a pretty comforting notion—especially now in the already short and growing even shorter days of November. It's the sun-warmed stone, and then some.

Paul speaks to us of justice as well, but points out that it is not a passive thing. To be treated justly, we need to do our fair share. If we are diligent and persevere we will be rewarded with and by the fruits of our labor. Lastly, Luke, too, tells us to persevere—in faith, this time—and our lives will be secure in God regardless of how we are treated by our enemies. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

School News

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

It's hard to believe in one more week Thanksgiving will soon be upon us. Time passes quickly. Each year as I travel over the river and through the woods for our Thanksgiving dinner, I am sure my mind will undoubtedly go back to the same place, thinking of all that I have to be grateful for as we get closer to a brand new year.

Little did I know last year that I would be sitting in the principal's office for good reasons, as the new principal of Our Lady of Victory School. I know next week, once again, as we travel to our Thanksgiving dinner destination, I will give thanks for the special gift God has entrusted me with. I am so proud to be your principal for many reasons and my Thanksgiving prayers this year will reflect them.

I pray in thanks for the very special and talented teachers and staff who sacrifice so much to give each child in their classroom a successful experience throughout the year. They truly embody the spirit of Our Lady of Victory and the legacy that Father Baker has entrusted us with throughout the years.

Prayers of thanks will be given for our parents. Thank you for the gift of your time, talent, and treasure. Know that all that you give does not go unnoticed. Each day I am blessed with the gifts that your children bring to our school. I am grateful you have given us the opportunity to mold and shape each mind with academics and to enrich souls in the image of Christ each and every school day.

Finally, included will be prayers of thanks for Father Paul and all of the parishioners here at Our Lady of Victory Basilica. Thank you for the financial support you give to our school each year. Your generosity enables us to continue our work in helping to mold the future OLV parishioners of tomorrow, strong young men and women who are successful in life, who give back to their families, their community, and their parish.

I wish you all many blessings this Thanksgiving holiday.
Mrs. Carolyn Kraus

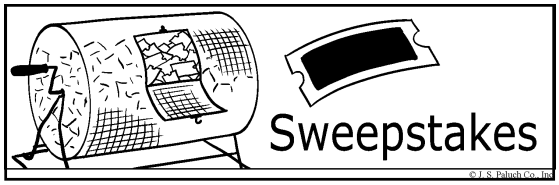
St. Vincent de Paul Society News

The OLV St. Vincent de Paul Society will be distributing food to the needy in our community for the Thanksgiving holiday. If you are interested in doing a little to make a big difference, please consider joining us...no experience is necessary! We could use help packing 200 bags of food on the morning of Friday, November 18, starting at 10:00 a.m. On Saturday, November 19, we could use people/families willing to drive their cars to deliver those bags to Lackawanna homes at starting times spaced out between 10:00 a.m. and noon. For more information, call the rectory at 828-9444 to leave a message for the St. Vincent de Paul Society and a member will call you back.

You can also help your neighbors by placing non-perishable food (especially a protein such as peanut butter or tuna) in the bins at the entrances to the church. We can also use the "paper in plastic bags" you get from the supermarket. Thank you.

Altar & Rosary Society Bake Sale Coming Next Weekend ~ November 19-20

The Altar and Rosary Society is having their annual Bake Sale on the weekend of November 19-20 in the Marian Room after the weekend Masses. Everyone needs goodies for Thanksgiving, so we could use a variety of baked goods for this fundraiser. Please drop off your baked treasures before Mass November 19 and 20. Your generous help will make this event a success.



Mark Your Calendar for The OLV Annual Sweepstakes

Tickets for the annual Sweepstakes drawing have been ordered and will be available soon. The Sweeps Kickoff Party will be after the 4:30 p.m. Mass on Saturday, December 3, 2016. Tickets will be $50.00 each and will admit 2 (21 and over, please) to the Grand Prize Drawing on Saturday, March 11, 2017. There will be a total of $25,000 in prizes, plus five Early Bird Drawings totaling $1,000. Watch the bulletin for information on ticket availability.

Do You Feel You Might Be Called to the Priesthood?

Are you a young man in high school who thinks he might be called to the priesthood? Consider meeting up with guys like yourself to discuss your thoughts and feelings about the priesthood with Father Andrew Lauricella, the Vocation Director. It is called the "St. Joseph Club." Pick up a copy of the green pamphlet in the main vestibule of the church for more information. Talk to Father Sam, too!

Are you a man of college age or older who thinks he might be called to the priesthood? Consider meeting up with men like yourself to discuss your thoughts and questions with Father Andrew Lauricella, the Vocation Director. It is called the "Response Program." Take a copy of the yellow pamphlet in the main vestibule of the church for more information. Talk to Father Sam, too.

The Traveling Chalice

Would you like to host the "Traveling Chalice" in your home to promote vocations to the priesthood and religious life?

Father Sam invites families with school-aged (including college -aged) children still living at home, to bring his personal chalice home for a week to help promote vocations through brief prayer each evening with your family.

The week begins with the presentation of the chalice at the end of a Saturday evening or Sunday Mass, and may be concluded with Father Sam celebrating a Mass in your home on the following Friday evening. Please contact Father Sam at the rectory at 716-828-9428 or sgiangreco@ourladyofvictory.org for more information or to sign –up.

Vocation Thought Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Great things may require a great while and patient endurance, but are worth it in the end. We all share the work of anticipating the full reign of God's kingdom, but what is YOUR role? If God is calling you to a Church vocation, call Father Andrew Lauricella at 716-847-5535. Check out the "Priest of the Month" stories at: www.buffalovocations.org.

Sunday, November 6th

Due to an early deadline, totals for the November 6th Sunday collection will be listed in an upcoming bulletin.

Support OLV Elementary School Tuition Assistance/Scholarship Fund with Daily Draw Tickets

Catholic Education provides high quality academics and innovative programs while reinforcing Catholic identity. Unfortunately, some children cannot afford a Catholic school education without some help. All proceeds from Daily Draw sales are used to help with Tuition Assistance at OLV Elementary School. This good work would not be possible without your support!

How It Works: Purchase a monthly ticket for $5. Winning numbers are based on evening daily draw.

Prizes: $50 Sunday to Thursday and $100 Friday and Saturday. Also, 10% of the win goes to the seller of the winning number and $5 is paid to the number above and below the winning number. Many opportunities to cash-in everyday!

For a limited time, buy 12 months of tickets for the price of 11! Get 12 months for $55.

Tickets are available at the Rectory office during regular business hours or complete this form and return it with your check in the collection basket or send it with your check to OLV Rectory, 767 Ridge Road, Lackawanna, NY 14218.
